MEET YOUR GUIDE:

SHE'ROSE

Strength Empowermer Advocacy

She'rose was created in the Ngarranggarni/ the Dreamtime by the all-powerful Nuboo/ Creator Spirit

I am a Nangari skinned ngaringga/ woman from the Kimberley.

My people have walked our ngurra/ country since the Ngarranggarni/ the beginning of time.

The power of Nuboo/ Creator Spirit, has enabled me to help my people, especially against the works of Mamu/ evil spirit. My weapons are my Mirda/ shield and my Ginimiliny/ Spear.

But I only guli/ fight the good fight! I use my powers to stand up for the right things!

She'rose wears wristbands and anklets that connect her to the ancient Aboriginal circular economy and give her power to help her people walk in present-day economic systems. Through the help of Nuboo, I help people see into the future, and be prepared for changes. Maintaining Winan- our ancient Aboriginal circular economy, I help people to reconcile our ancient trade and gifting system, with present day western economic structures.

I help women to create 'Wealth for Purpose', so we can reinvest back into our families and people.

My special interests are to help women grow stronger and to defend children. I also care for Ngurra and care for community.

Take care my Jali/ friend! I am so happy you are joining me in my mission to create Wealth for Purpose in the lives of Aboriginal Women throughout the Kimberley.

She'rose's main responsibilities are to care for country, defend the truth, protect children and elevate women. One of Sher'ose's superpowers is to champion and support women in their career & workforce pathways, leadership growth, and business development. She'rose has strong personal, emotional, spiritual, and financial well-being which sustains her in the assignments Nuboo has given her to carry out.
